

Classification of Waste

Non-radioactive Waste	Domestic Waste	Garbage	Household garbage: General garbage (combustible/non-combustible), large items
			Commercial garbage: Waste from offices, restaurants, etc.
		Raw sewage
	Specially controlled domestic waste *1
	Industrial Waste	Of the waste generated in commercial activities, 20 types of waste stipulated by law *2
		Specially controlled industrial waste *3
Radioactive Waste	Low-level Radioactive Waste	Power plant waste	Waste having an extremely low radioactive level
			Waste having a relatively low radioactive level
			Waste having a relatively high radioactive level
	Uranium waste
	Transuranic (TRU) radioactive waste
	High-level Radioactive Waste

*1: Explosive, toxic, infectious and any other waste that is likely to result in damage to human health or the living environment.

*2: Cinders, sludge, waste oil, scrap metal, glass & concrete waste, etc.

*3: Excluding domestic waste, explosive, toxic, infectious and any other waste that is likely to result in damage to human health or the living environment.